

I am opposed to this rule making. It is not needed nor desired except by a small percentage of Hams who have an interest promoting their own self-interest only. The availability of calls to newly licensed amateurs is drying up rapidly and this proposal will only hasten that.